

LILIJA LIPORA, a graduated choreographer, enjoys life with contemporary dance, directing, acting techniques in contemporary theater, spontaneity and improvisation. She has participated in various contemporary dance, jazz dance, puppet and object theater workshops abroad and in Latvia. Significantly contributes to the development of contemporary dance and dance theater genre in Latvia. Choreographer of several dance performances and theater plays. Organizer and author of the idea of international contemporary dance and art festival "VIDES DEJA". She has worked in various projects, productions and performances with children, young people, actors and dancers in Latvia and around Europe. As a dancer has performed in different dance and theater projects.